

S Singing	I Inspired	N New Ideas	G Get Connected	O Other Randomness
Think of a song you know well and write some funny quarantine lyrics to part of it. Send me the lyrics and tell me what song! If you choose to record it, you can tag the choir on Facebook or insta @centralhighchorus	Get up early one morning and go outside to listen to the birds singing.	Learn a new song. Tell me what song you learned.	Talk to someone over the age of 40. What is their favorite song? What was their favorite artist/band when they were your age?	Sing along with a favorite Disney movie, movie musical or video game music. Record a short clip! You can also tag us on social media @centralhighchorus
Practice singing something, anything. Use your best voice.	Create a piece of art that reflects the style, feeling or message of a choir song we have sung this year.	Listen to a recording of a famous singer and analyze the performance on paper.	Teach someone else something you know about music/singing. Tell me what you taught them.	Drink 5 cups of water in 1 day!
How long can you sing a high note? How long can you sing a low note? Time yourself and write it down. No cheating!	Write a short note (at least 3 sentences) to Mrs. McGuire about what you love about music.	FREE	Ask an adult about a favorite memory involving music.	Sing through 3 of your favorite songs from childhood.
Sing a song WITH someone in your family, or with a friend over the internet. What song did you sing?	Choose your favorite choir song we have sung this year. In at least 3 sentences, tell me why you like it.	Write a song. Write down the lyrics; sing it and record.	Pretend you are a choir director. Create your perfect concert. See www.jwpepper.com to look up choir pieces.	Think of a new way to remember the name of the treble clef line notes. EGBDF Example: Every Good Boy Does Fine
Practice singing a song you like a cappella or with a karaoke or instrumental track.	Dance to a song.	Create a tongue twister warm-up for our choir.	Sing a song for someone else in person or online. What song did you sing?	Interview each family member and write down their favorite song.