

S Singing	I Inspired	N New Ideas	G Get Connected	O Other Randomness
Choose a sightreading from website; practice singing it with solfege.	Spend time outside listening to music. Selfie evidence.	Listen to 1 song excerpt on www.jwpepper.com Search for a song you know.	Facetime/video chat with someone in choir. Spend some time listening to how they're doing.	Make a silent video of you performing the hand signals to the major scale; send to McGuire.
Practice singing something, anything. Use your best voice.	Make a meme to encourage others to join chorus and send to Mrs. McGuire.	Listen to a recording of a famous singer and analyze the performance on paper.	Ask your parents what their favorite songs were in high school. Did they sing in choir?	Think of a new way to remember the name of the treble clef line notes. GBDFA Example: Good Burritos Don't Fall Apart
Choose a sightreading from website; practice singing it with solfege.	Draw an image to represent either: 1. The joy of music. 2. What music does for you.	FREE	Teach someone else something you know about music/singing. Tell me what you taught them.	Create a fun tongue twister for choir.
Sing a song WITH someone in your family, or with a friend over the internet. What song did you sing?	Spend some time outside listening to music. Selfie evidence.	Learn a new song. Tell me what song you learned.	Pretend you are a choir director. Create your perfect concert. See www.jwpepper.com to look up choir pieces.	Sing along with a favorite pop song. Record a short clip! You can also tag us on social media @centralhighchorus
Choose a sightreading from website; practice singing it with solfege.	Choose your own singing/music activity. Tell me about it.	Write a song. Write down the lyrics; sing it and record.	Sing a song for someone else in person or online. What song did you sing?	Send Mrs. McGuire a funny choir meme.